Product Guidelines: Vendors selling nonfood items, concession type food items and hot or cold drinks are responsible for collection of sales tax and reporting and paying sales tax to the State of Nebraska. The Ravenna Chamber of Commerce is not responsible for policing or enforcing the collection of sales tax. If you would like to sell baked goods, it is recommended that you include the following on each package label: name of product, your name or business name/contact information, price of product (such as 3 cookies for $2.00 or cookies-$2.00 per pound) and a list of ingredients. You must have signage at your booth indicating whether your baked goods were prepared in a licensed kitchen or not. This needs to be visible at your booth at all times. If you have products that need to be kept cold, make sure you bring the appropriate materials to keep foods cold (40 degrees and below) so they are not sitting in standing water (make sure your coolers have drain holes). The Health Inspector makes a couple of visits each summer and will issue citations if guidelines are not followed. Multiple violations will result in that vendor being removed from the Farmers Market without registration refund.

Vendor Responsibility: Vendors will be fully responsible for any loss or damage to his or her property by theft, fire, or casualty. The Ravenna Chamber of Commerce expressly disclaims any responsibility for same. Vendors shall be responsible for damage which may be incurred to facilities as a result of, or in connection with, its operation. Each Vendor is responsible for the conduct of his employees and/or representatives. Activities must not detract from the image or welfare of the event.

Vendor Spaces: Booth assignments are made by the Chamber. Vendors are responsible for providing their own tables and chairs. Tents are permissible as long as they are confined to the 10X10' area and weighted down. You may rent multiple spaces provided you pay for the extra space. Placement, flow, and competition will be taken into consideration to provide the best experience for the event attendees. If you have special space needs, please include the request with your application and we will make every effort to accommodate you. Vendors must ensure that none of their display equipment extends beyond the space they have booked, including any rails, stands or additional equipment.

One Business per space: Only one (1) business per space. Space may not be sublet or shared without the prior approval of the Ravenna Chamber of Commerce Executive Director.

Acceptance: The Ravenna Chamber of Commerce reserves the right to decline any vendor application if it deems such action to be in the best interest of the Event.
